90 Pain

Hope you have a
Nice Summer
Debbie Simonelli

To Pain,

We've been
the best of friends
we have lots of fun and a lot of laughs.
Best Wishes in the future
Have a great Summer!
Stay Sweet
Love always

Although most teachers attempt to make learning painless, he is one of the few who succeeds. His easy going and friendly manner puts his classes at ease, eliminating the barrier that often appears between teacher and student. For those students fortunate enough to have studied under him, learning in his classes became an almost orgasmic experience. The CLASS OF 1982 is both honored and privileged to dedicate this yearbook to

The only way to have a friend is to be one. Emerson

How many slams in an old screen door?
Depends how loud you shut it.
How many slices in a bread?
Depends how thin you cut it.
How much good inside a day?
Depends how good you live 'em.
How much love inside a friend?
Depends how much you give 'em.

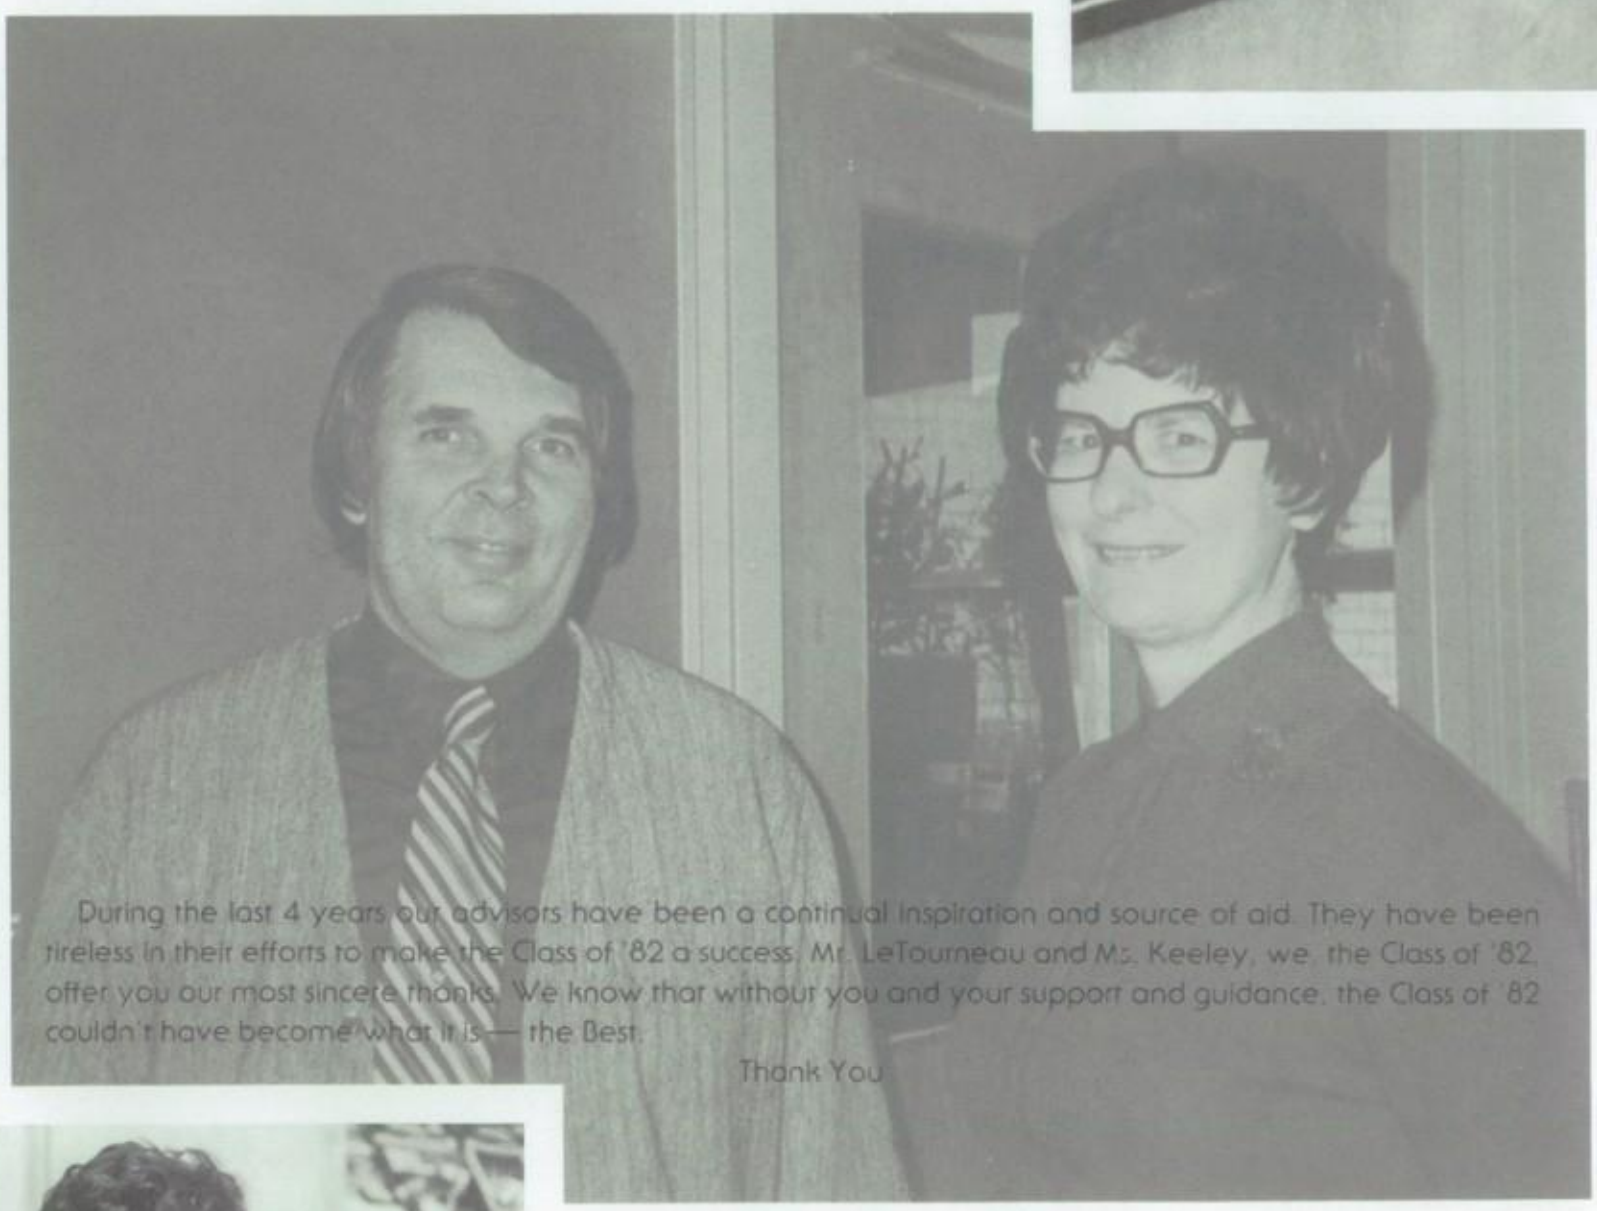
SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS



During the last 4 years our advisors have been a continual inspiration and source of aid. They have been tireless in their efforts to make the Class of '82 a success. Mr. LeTourneau and Ms. Keeley, we, the Class of '82, offer you our most sincere thanks. We know that without you and your support and guidance, the Class of '82 couldn't have become what it is— the Best.

Thank You

Senior Comments

Linda Agan – "Well, EFA, I hope you survive, because without the class of '82 you're nothing!" "Keeley, we're gonna get you!"
Dan Baker – "Boces building #1 is no match for this place."
Annie Ball – "So long EFA, it was nice knowing ya!"
Liza Bedell – "Here's one last toast to the old blue — CHEERS!"
Tom Bellinger – "So long EFA"
Joe Bonsignore – "I would like to leave to EFA my congratulations — because I enjoyed it here."
Maria Bucci – "You poor, unfortunate, underclassmen . . ." "Hey school! I was the first of seven Bucci's . . ."
Kerrie Bucher – "How do you spell relief? G-R-A-D-U-A-T-I-O-N"
Steve Carpenter – "What a long, strange trip it's been!"
Karen Clauss – "Good luck to everyone else, you'll need it!"
Mary Claypool – "Good luck forever."
George Coolbaugh – "May the teachers change, but the parties remain!"
Carol Cornnachio – "It was a good four years but I'm glad I'm finally out!"
Mike Cranmer – "Goodbye"
Mike Cristofaro – "Goodbye EFA"
Susan Daniel – "To Cindy, a course in PDQ Bach, to Diane my place in Concert Choir, thanks to everyone and best wishes to the Class of '83"
Janet Davidson – "Mr.Youdes — Well, I made it. Thank God I'm Out!"
Andrea Davis – "It was a great four years but I'm glad I'm out."
Scott Davis – "There I go — how 'bout you?"
Jim Derr – "It has been a great four years. I just feel sorry for all underclassmen left in this jail."
Karen Dickens – "Great memories of a great school. May the tradition carry on."
William Dickens – "It's better to be silent and thought of a fool than to speak up and remove all doubt."
Mary Dowling – "Thank Dave and Lori for being my best friends, and Magnum (in 229) for being so funny."
David Doyle – "Thanks Mary for being so cute and everybody else for helping me get through school."
Lisa Dozier – "Stay the best in everything."
Kathy Earley – "EFA was fun. Everyone is great."
Mark Glosenger – "EFA is good, as long as you're not in it at the time."
Sue Godwin – "Goodbye fair EFA, parting is such sweet sorrow."
Sas Good – "School? What's school?"
Lynn Gryska – "Adios mis amigos. Hasta luego. Beebe's, keep talking backwards"
Bill Hess – "Good Luck to whomever will attend EFA"
Matt Hillman – "Sport don't change for nobody."
John Hogg – "Good luck to Mrs. Tolbert and Dean Morgan, as they begin their new life together."
Douglas Holden – "Goodbye prison, my sentence is finally up."
Tim Hugg – "I would like to leave (in the yearbook) a pair of my old sweaty gym socks between pages 1 and 2."
Chris Hughey – "Sweet dreams . . . hope you can survive without me. I know I will be missed by all the faculty and kids. Good luck."
John Hults – "Someday soon it's your turn, to get out of this school."
Kevin Keough – "EFA will be much less enjoyable without my humor. A School without Keough-jokes is like a day without CRUNCHBERRIES for Breakfast."
Daphne Kibbe – "To the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen. I feel sorry for you because you have to stay here with Doran."
Jim Knuth – "TWEET, TWEET, TWEET, TWEET, TWEET, TWEET, TWEET, TWEET, TWEET."
Paul Jones – "I don't think I realized my full parential. I only flirted with half the school."
John Labate – "Is it too late to drop this class?"
Tammy Lamb – "It has been a lot of fun these last four years. I am going to really miss it. I am glad I am leaving before Doran makes this into a prison."
Steve Lighthiser – "Life is just a moving picture with a lot of X-rated music!"
Mark Magera – "When I'm in a sober mood, I worry, work, and think, when I'm in a drunken mood I gamble, sleep, and drink, and when my moods are over and my time has come some day, I hope they bury me anywhere except dear EFA."
John Malone – "Bend over Doran."
Marinda McGee – "Hey, Girls, keep hanging out in the bathrooms and when you have a cigarette, remember me!"
Keith McLaughlin – "It's been four long years, but now on to bigger and better things. Good luck to the entire class of '82 — I hope you make it . . . somehow!"
Tom Milliken – "Goodbye"
David Mix – "EFA, oh yes, where else can a person learn so much, but understand so little?"
Kenney Moss – "Get a new principal and give me my diploma."
Mike Moss – "Thank God it's over."
Tim Mucci – "Later, MUCH!"
Donald Myles – "I hope the underclassmen have a good time."
Karen Newman – "School years are the best years of one's life, so enjoy it even though it's difficult."
Benita Newsom – "My regrets for the underclassmen. Get a new principal for these poor kids."
Mary Obuhanich – "Hey Mary D: Wooo-wooo! Chug-chug-chug-wooo-wooo!. Annie: Why didn't you tell me, Bill B: Excuse me sir, could you tell me where I am?"
Katrina Olson – "Thank God it's finally over."
Charles Perry – "Thanks teachers, you really taught me a lot."
Liz Petrey – "It's better than working."
Dawn Prettyman – "Hope the underclassmen have an easier time making it than I did."
John Rafferty – "I owe all of this success to my parents."
Mary Resavage – "We're out of this place."
Debbie Sanders – "Finally free of cell block "M"."
Sandy Santulli – "Let's just skip."
Sue Senkiw – "Long live food fights."
Biren Shah – "I shall miss the disciplinary rules of the library and the strict enforcement of these rules by Mrs. Tolbert. I shall miss the peace and quiet of the library."
Karen Shore – "Oi vay, I'm done with this misugena."
Karen Stebbins – "There will never be a better class than '82. Tweet-tweet you underclassmen."
Joe Stirpe – "Thanks EFA for the best of my schooling life."
Carla Sweet – "C-ya around suckers. I'm headed for success."
Brenda Swinko – "Keep on partying."
Greg Terpolilli – "Good luck! Thank you teachers for getting me through."
Elizabeth Thomas – "It's pretty wild that school's out. In a way it's a bummer."
Pat Thomas – "EFA has made my high school years the best years of my life so far."
Mark Vaugh – "I have laughed, I have loved, I have grieved, and I have matured within this edifice. EFA thanks for giving me a precious gift during my stay — life."
Karen Viselli – "Do you want to skip today because I can't handle school ANYMORE."
Wendy VanAlstine – "I'd like to say that I'm really going to miss EFA, but I don't like to lie."
Deborah Wald – "I am thankful for EFA and its teachers, and for all the members of the class of '82 that have made it really special. These have not been four easy years but four good ones."
Stephen Waters – "After all the trouble and headaches you've given me and losing sleep, getting up so early just to be here, I have finally conquered you."
Chris Woodard – "Thank God I'm a Senior and leaving Dear Old EFA!"
Mary Jo Yunis – "There are many pleasures in life, unfortunately this school isn't one of them."

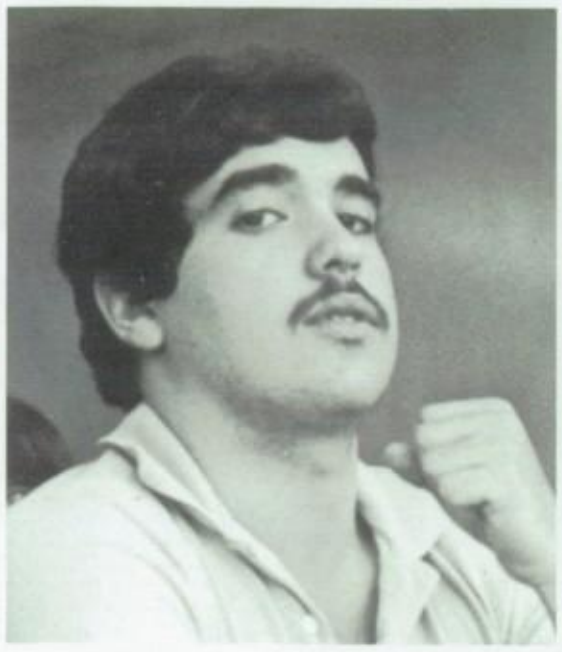
What Will You Be



"I hope to have my masters in computer science and live anywhere but here (preferably N.Y.C.)."

David Doyle

"I'll be somewhere, hopefully in a concert tour in Europe, after completing 4 or 5 years of college majoring in performance on piano and organ. I may be married if the right girl comes along. Maybe in 10 years, the best class will be having a reunion. If nothing else, I guess my own personal excitement will be waiting for that first spoonful of Count Chocula in the morning."

David Mix

"I'll probably have been married and divorced a couple of times, and have a dozen or so kids."

Annie Ball

"Managing Playboy in New York."

John Malone

"I will be a super-rich doctor and will own the state of Hawaii as my private resort island, own real estate on the moon and fly my own Space Shuttle with Lasers and, of course, computer games."

Debra Sanders

"My tentative plans for the coming decade are to attend college and acquire a Ph.D. in Physics or Engineering and a minor in Computer Science. I also desire a wife, a family and a home."

Mark Vaughn

"I'll be living in my mansion with my 5 cars and guard dogs; I can't deal with husbands or kids."

Benita Newsom

"I will be in the Army. The youngest 5-star general in the world. I plan to make a living in the Army."

Joe Stirpe

"I hope to have my degree in Nursing and work in Rochester."

Mary Dowling

"I may listen to a tape by AC/DC after listening to High Infidelity in the EFA auditorium while thinking about a movie I saw called "Stripes" with my can of beer and piece of pizza, destined for the waste basket."

William Dickens

"Living in the great city of Washington D.C. working as a very successful business manager of "Hughey's Lunar Hot Dogs," which will be the first nuclear hot dogs ever. Also, I plan to open a business and sell records. Hopefully by then I'll have invented the first mini-record series. This will mean that all albums will be the size of a microgram and all you have to do is add water and it will blow up to normal size. Surely this will cut down on the price of records and also cut the budget."

Chris Hughey

"I will be 28 years old and be making $82,500.00 a year. I will have 4 kids, attempting to have 13. I will be living in Pittsburgh, and be a stripper on the side."

Matt Hillman

"Probably will be killed in Nuclear War!"

Steve Lighthiser

Doing In 10 Years?

"Todd Burkey and I will probably be married, have about 5 kids, and own a big house out in California with an olympic size swimming pool. We'll come back for our reunion only to find the faculty and school still a huge mess from our senior day!"

Linda Agan

"My friends and I will be traveling around the country, catching all the hot rock groups in concert to make up for all the ones that never came to Elmira. In other words, I'll be a groupie."

Katrina Olson

"Organizing a vast campaign to stamp out virginity wherever it exists (A remote corner of Southeast India)."

John Hogg

"Legalizing heroine and commercializing dead babies."

Matt Hurlbut

"I will be happily married and stay home and watch the kids while my wife (the engineer) brings home the paycheck so I can put the food on the table. Whew, what a life!!"

Biren Shah

"I will either be working for the United States Government in a plot to overthrow the Russians or be married and have 10 kids trailing behind me."

Maria Bucci

"I will have 6 kids and a ranch in Omaha raising cows and horses, along with my worm farm. I will be working for the U.S.A. as an U.P.S. man or alias a spy. On vacation, I'll go to Columbia and raise coffee beans."

Mike Moss

"I will probably still be in college studying medicine and looking back at my high school years and trying to forget them. Hopefully, I will be able to come to our class reunion and remember everyone's name."

Keith McLaughlin

"Married, divorced, married, divorced, collecting alimony, and becoming rich off my ex-husbands."

Marinda McGee

"I'll be on a tropical island, laying on a white sandy beach, sipping a Pina Colada, and enjoying the sights."

Mary Obuhanich

"Sex, drugs, rock-n-roll."

Steve Carpenter

"I will be emperor of the world with an army of 2×10^9 supporting me. All schools will be supported by selling the remains of all people slain in the takeover."

Tim Hugg

"I will probably be married, have a couple of kids, and be half-way to being a millionaire. If this doesn't happen, I'll probably be divorced, childless, and unemployed."

Stephen Waters

The TORCH is proud to have Personius-Warne Studio photography in our book. We wish to thank professional photographer Craig Hutchings for the time and effort he dedicated.

Rain,

Howdy! It has been one interesting year! I'm sure I'll be used to next year though. I didn't see ya much this year except for in homeroom and occasionally at 6th period lunch. Maybe I'll see ya more next year. Well, I gotta go now.

Ah
to marvel over the buried pleasures of this year is beautiful.
And
to say, reflectively, "Hello!" again to those you've seen move on to other treasures
is a fine thing.
But
we must recall not only those who have touched us but also those whom we may likewise touch.
You
seeker finder runner loser thinker breathless contemplator Sit
and ponder and, somehow,
Help

Rain? So I'm unprepared! Have I ever been prepared? Well, you're a great kid. You've been a real neat friend over the years. Well, I hope you do well in the future and in everything you do. Stay sweet + cute

Love ya,
Marta

Rain!
Hi what's up
Well good luck
on your finals
And good luck on your future!
Hope to hear from you
A friend

Rain,
How have you been
Well I hope
Good luck with
Take Care,
Rain
